Old Business -- None

New Business

Smoking Issues- Ron Street stated that inmates were being allowed to use "smokeless cigarettes" in the jail. He stated that tobacco products were not allowed in the jail and this was a non-tobacco product. The smokeless cigarettes are sold in the commissary located in the jail. Pay for the product is taken from the inmates account (if they have funds). It was reported presently that this is proving to be "a good thing" due to many inmate are heavy smokers. Chief Street stated the program was being watch carefully and updates would be reported.
